

1. There was a young boy of age eight. His mother's friends would talk with him about random topics. He would consider the subjects and respond with his own opinions. They would say to him, "You're so cute." He left to watch TV.
2. A boy and a girl were playing at the playground. The girl asked the boy, "There is a boy that keeps bugging me to be his girlfriend. Do you want to pretend to be my boyfriend so he can leave me alone?" The boy responded, "I want to be your boyfriend, but you have already scared me twice right now."
3. A teenager used to drive without a license. His family would condemn him saying, "You're going to lose your car." They ask him for repairs.
4. A blind man was sitting by a doorway. Someone approached him and asked for the time. He said, "Here, look at my watch."
5. Someone scolded a man, "All you do is talk!" He replied, "Where did you read that?"
6. A man was lost. A monkey asked, "What are you looking for?" The man exclaimed, "You can speak!" The monkey exclaimed, "Oh my God! You can speak!"
7. One day a troll came to a bridge. A boy appeared and said, "In order to cross this bridge, you have to tell me a riddle that I cannot solve." The troll is still there collecting money.
8. A man had a statue made of solid gold. He used to show it to his friends. One day the statue came alive and the man cried in disappointment. The statue asked, "Why do you cry in our happy home?"
9. A woman just won the World Series of Poker. A reporter asked, "How did you become such a great poker player?" She said, "I'm not a player and I don't chase the pot."
10. A patient kept rescheduling his appointments. He sued the doctor for retiring.
11. Friends would wonder why a girl would stay home all day. They still haven't read the many books that she's written.

I used Google Translate. I was going to brush it up when I studied Chinese again... :/

Jr. Gravity

We heard you. Are you still listening?
We've sent friends. Are you feeling them?
They are through us. You can speak through them.
Remember them. They remember you, friend.

True Random

Every page, we've whispered through.
Did you see us? We're still seeing you.
Some will ask you where you're from.
So where is the place you're most proud to have left.
Are you proud enough to call it home?
How does it compare to places you have been?
How close do we have to be to be family?
When will we see each other as more than distant friends?

One Thousand Days of Rain

Every one thousand days.
Where were we every one thousand days?
I cultivate qi. We cultivate qi.
Eavesdrop my qi on it's way to cultivate We.
Trust in mine. Trust in yours.
Cultivate more. Cultivate more.
Simplify love. Simplify chores.
Simplify the rain on your open pores.

A Visit to Tired Older Brother

There's a void in heaven where a tired brother drinks the color.
Must be his job, he seems so aware of it.
"Who's water am I picking up now?"
The river's moon waits like it doesn't know of it.
Asked to drink, it says, "I don't know what I see or hear."

Called a virtuous kid. How?
Clothed with symbols all offering color.
Where does he live?
There, I'd like a minute to ask,
Train's come to carry me.
This must be Grandma saying, "Eat your words."

I Guess I Wrote

Like a DJ playing the jams that I slept to.

Memories creeping down my face like a slippery snake who...
Would rather spend time putting the needle to the wax...
Than to write new words for me to write back.

I stayed up countless dreams pretending to sleep.
Laughing at the plays and the harmonics of my scripts.
Laughing at my reflections like they never saw me.
Wondering about March Fourth like a new spelling bee.

Humiliated so many times before you.
I whispered everywhere, didn't you hear who?
You felt my heart, but did you know why it beats that way?
If I said "You," where would "You" stay?

Where would you whisper? Where would you play?
Where would you shiver? Where would you stray?
Where would you blister? Where would you fray?
Where would I carry tomorrow to meet you today?

Three quarters of a lift and I saw myself a quarter past.
I woke up before everyone so who woke up last?
Two points in a glitter box and I saw you.
Playing the same music my mom used to.

Music I never played because she told me not to.
The DJ's to keep away even if they cried too.
I write my own lyrics because that's what I was raised to.
Before mommies and daddies knew what words were and whom to speak to.

tentative running my fingers through time like it's a dripping wet fabric brushing the tips like cycles of new year couplets to fancy like my wax be berries made into circuits to pass me while i'm reaching for the gates taking my patience into a precognitive, "what was i trying to make wait?"

strings became telegrams to whatever came before what we create.
like my webs that have, "by appointment only, now escape."
lucky to have celestial guardians that take the letter to the face.
if i ever reach that awesome state, i hope to have the fervor to assist in the save.

where you from!
i'm from where i came!
no guide. no coach. no drugs. no roach.
no drink. no poke. no drop. no joke.
straight to sleep. straight awake.
straight to the point. what to create?
what about them? what about them?
what about them? forget it again!.
where you from!
i'm from where i came!
no church. no school. no work. no group.
no hand. no stool. no frisbee virtue.
straight in the hay. straight in a blink.
straight to the pin. how you think?
forget it again! forget it again!
forget it again! here comes the rain.
how does one explain?
forget it again!
as fate would have it, it found me again!
enough to remember that i forgot it again!
like i walk beside myself in a world without sin.
walking on tears made of gold and cameras made of silver.
my hide made of wolves and my teeth made from its shiver.

howdy do

put me on the spot. i gotta put you on it too.
callin' me out, i heard you callin' you out too.
i'm not who you think. i'm not who you think.
but truly don't act anyway similar to you.

drunk

i fell asleep what. did you fall with me?
i saw someone jump what. did you jump with us really?
did you feel the thunder dump what i was feeling?
when you cry, do you cry like my pudding?
is it erotic for you when it's my heart that they're spilling?
is it children for your womb or your tenderest willing?
what if i said that you're the cause of my sugar tooth filling?
would you still be billing?
what if i said that you're the cause of every orange peeling?

would you still be tilling?
i fell in love more than once.
did you fall in love more than me?
did you keep a ledger to gauge it with me?
did you call you friends to ask about their dealings?
do i have anyone else than you and our children to raise our ceiling?

AS LOVE WOULD HAVE IT

don't tell me what to say.
who were they?
a fiction of my affection carried away.
chasing a ray ray of words i can't say.
even to this day.
my whispers became clay in another's hands to be played.
dare i say.
it was love to be awake.
it was love like a prayer.
what else is there to say to spin it?
like a mince of words to keep swimming.
i've been drowning since the first day i saw her entrance into my life.

OH WAS THAT WHAT IT WAS

laughin' at myself, how i got twisted.
caught up in a splintered string.
added so many voices to haunt my dreams.
love grew into things that i could never believe.
delusion that became and even grandeur scheme.
lost in my mirrors like

heaven what. heaven sent.
what else

Waiting forever. Waiting forever.
Waiting forever. Waiting forever.
If tomorrow never came, I'd still be waiting forever.
Slim to none to squared roots of negative one to, "Look at those feathers."
Shift focus forever. Love is forever.
Breadcrumbs forever. Alone? Not Forever.
Our friendships run through time. We run forever.

making maps with every act. pay attention to yourself.
pay attention to your true spiritual wealth.
and so are they also true. and so are they also you.
and someone introduced me to love we already knew.
study something and study something even more.
how does it harmonize with what you are and what you were before?
reimagine what it means to reimagine imagination.
take the reigns of your creativity to greet the future ages.

Heard the waves singing. Heard the winds singing.
Heards the whispers in my dreams mingling.
Found myself running on my fists through the city wild.
Found myself running on water like I done it for a while.
Running through subways before subways was a thing.
Running my own music before I needed permissions to sing.

Elements. Heaven sent. Dragon's breath. Spider nets.
Peek a boo. Look at who. Crooked view. Three to two.
Forty-five. One to Nine. Lords of Night. Friendly Skies.
Bridges back. Get the slack. Who was that? Vapor Time.
Integrity. Stay genuine accountability.
Say it straight into my face if you really trying to count with me.
Check the facts before you try to meta into anything.
Met a realm to meta realm to the roots of all philosophies.
Fruitses. Flowerses. And anything that grows on trees.
Meet me there first if you you're meeting on a bended knee.
Burning up our pages doesn't wash away our histories.
Check the parallax if you checking our technologies.
Knotted up. To the top. How you think I got this clean?

Believe it was them before it was ever you or we.
Homage to all descendants and homage to all ancestries.
Keep the future in our vision. So where we really trying to be?

Walking three dimensions when I discovered time.
Time drippin wet when I stepped into five.
Looked at my reflection and it looked to its side.
Numbers became crumbs on a quest to decide.
Exploring maps, my notes became stars in the sky.
Direct access to anything. Why tempt me to lie?
My metaphors are truths before I question the line.
Knotting colors and fabrics that words cannot find.
Keep me thinking clearly, "But keep Them Divine,
"Keep us all together should we ever unwind,
"Keep a quipu keeper just in case we go blind"
Twelve is my current siren that I'm teaching to fly.

When the world is screaming at you, scream, "I love you inside!"

Tried to sneak into the spot to look at your schedule.
Saw you in the back hall still so beautiful.
Talking to a friend, I wanted to approach you.
Instead took a different route to stay out of view.
Somehow you glanced and came to approach me.
A solid embrace like, "FINALLY!"
Your hair changed. You curled it.
Your face changed also. Or maybe the world did.
Still happy to see you whatever the case was.

Still a ring on my finger and a whole lot a patience.
Asked three trees three times if I should wait.
Three times, three leaves and tears I couldn't shake.
Your world must be so different from mine.
Before you I was in a big small world doing just fine.
Discovered the Universe actually listening the whole time.
Still hopeful for our friendship to remain divine.
Still waiting.

Sometimes I feel so close to you.
Sometimes I feel like my mind is playing tricks on me.
Sometimes I feel like my ancestors heard about my love for you.
Sometimes I feel like our ancestors led you to me.
Sometimes I wonder how we would age together.
Sometimes I wonder how our ancestors see us holding hands.
Sometimes I wonder if our children will see my love for you.
Sometimes I wonder if our children hear us in the future.
This time I want to show them that YES I can hear them.
This time I want to show them that YES I can hear their friends.
This time I want to show them that YES I can hear every echo.
This time I want to show them that YES I HAVE SEEN IT!
This time I want to show them that NO you DON'T need a contract.
This time I want to show them that NO you DON'T need a clubhouse.
This time I want to show them that NO you DON'T need a skill.
This time I want to show them that all you have to do is ASK.
And sometimes, like with me, not even THAT.

Every number. Every word. Every thought. Every slur.
Every heartbeat. Every breath. Every skip. Every blur.
Every motion. Every step. Every stance. Every turn.
Every muscle. Every bone. Every break. Every burn.
Every whisper. Every lie. Every truth. Every purr.
Every sentence. Every page. Every book. Every store.
Every relic. Every site. Every stage. Every chore.
Every kernel. Every field. Every earth. Maybe more.
Every record of every province beyond the four.
Every molecule. Every compound. Every gene. Every spore.
Every taste. Every smell. Every sight. Every score.
Every legend. Every myth. Every script. Every lore.

Every town. Every street. Every key. Every door.
Every master. Every slave. Every rich. Every poor.
Every tree. Every root. Every branch. Every thorn.
Every giggle. Every sigh. Every cry. Every roar.

I was saving this for our one on one.
I didn't want to scare you by being so blunt.
I'm sorry I'm not so cool like the other guys.
I'm woven with a different fabric. Honestly, why lie?
But a few things really eat me up inside.
Like when I move to approach you, you run and hide.
Sure I consider myself in your position.
But I'm not you and I need your confession.
"Did you really cry like I did?"
"Did you really try like I did?"
"Did you give the benefit of doubt like I did?"
"Did you really know who I was before I did?"
"Did you run into every village screaming like I did?"
"Did you think about us every drunk moment like I did?"
"Did you think we had an honest chance like I did?"
"Did you get distracted from work so much like I did?"
I still think about my past experiences.
I still think about my spiritual quests.
I wonder sometimes if you're just one of the challenges.
And I still refuse to give up on our oneness.
But who am I? A paradox of things.
Contradictory ideas in an idealist's sea.
A half awake sleepwalker still holding on a dream.
Sometimes I'm in doubt. I just want to always believe. Same team.

I love cause I want to; not cause I have to.
Cultivate myself so I can add more to the heirlooms.
Catch me as a fair groom dancing with the werewolves.
Respects to Pachamama for her guidance and fair views.
Blessing me with wisdom of passion and perfume.
A balanced diet of mini vice and mega mega virtue.
Thanks for safety nets while I was out past the curfew.
Bless all that we are. Bless all that we pursue.

All I wanted. I've already had. What's next beyond heaven?
Like a spore. Could there be more? In the presence of Bliss.
Is there beyond this? Is there beyond I've been there.
Can you believe me? Can you believe me?
Someone believes me because someone knows where.
Numbers became allegories each in their own right.
I found myself drifting through time on a Condor's flight.
Like, "Which direction to take tonight?"
Do I run? Do I walk? Do I fight?
Do I listen to the winds and the leaves glisten before they glide?
When there was meant to be only one.
Which one in a world full of ones?
One became eight plus one.
One became get caught in the act.
One became I just want to confess all of my weakness.
Force me to love and I can't.
Allow me the Truth. Allow me to Truth.

Fuckin' with me, better know the time.
Not a better you. A better them. Better check the rhyme.
Sublime with the speech like I'm threaded to rewind.
Catch me on that fast forward. Tech left behind.
Not the laymen but the laziest to get out of recline.
Scholar undeniably droppin' Good Luck Notes on the Pine.
Catch me near the Romas while others near the vine.
Stockin' what they need so what you need from mine?

Laced me a gem, now I'm lacin' with gold.
Droppin' solids like I never met a girl.
Faced myself to the grim rim.
Laced myself back again.
Askin' my ancestors WHAT THE FUCK IS UP WITH YOU?

When I'm talking to your kids, I'm talking to your kids.
Just a heads up if you think they wasn't in the future visions.

Hit me. I'm still grippin. Where you sippin?

Griffins still in it. We're expensive.

Got some time. Read a book. Better yet. Write one.
Rewrite it if you can. Make your future steps the right ones.
Search around for ancestors. Eventually you'll find some.
They've been watching you forever. You don't need to fight them.
Whispers in the alley. Why were you chosen to mind them?

One Hundred and Forty-Three degrees of black and white.
Two thousand and four years of sands tricking by.
Twenty-three snows after being three days late.
Instant gratification after many nights wide awake.

I saw you. Never knew I'd be travelling through time sweating you.
"I love her." "I love her." "I don't care! I love her!"
I'm not sorry we met. I'm not sorry you stood next to me.
I'm not sorry you made fun of me. I'm not sorry I love you.
I'd stock the same produce everyday just to see you.
I'd lift the same stupid boxes just to see you.
I'd help you wherever I could.
I'd help you just because I love you.
I love you. I love you. I love you. I love you.
"I love you." "I love you." "I love you." "I love you."
And I know you love me. The real me.

Caught me while I was slippin.
Still I confessed my love.
Sorry if I'm not like the others.
No. Wait. No I'm not.
I love you through it all.
Paintin' a Cuzco wall,
"I love you forever,
Yup, Mamas. That's what's up."
I'm still mapping bridges.

Check our gradience.

Pluggin' up your neighbors.

Leavin' all your friends.

Vapor One stay up on the rise again.

Thought about it. Answer still no.

Stay on that true sweet memory of something I chose to forget long ago.

Catch if you catch me.

Else catch me on the Go.

Say I'm here for life, I'm here for life.

Chop seal it once. I can chop seal it twice.

Ask Pachama, "Yo. You think I'm overzealous?"

Pachama like, "Yo. We ready to reveal this?"

Ask me not to lie. So tell me the truth.

Ask me not to steal. So show me the root.

Ask me not to be lazy.

So be diligent enough to think things all the way through.

Caught in the act sending kites through time.

Locking numbers on strings like beautiful vines.

Strings become theories of vibrance and surprise.

Infinite dimensions calibrate and rewind.

Celebrate the Divine. Pour a little wine.

Homage to the ancestors keeping us in mind.

Homage to the cartographers passing us fresh new designs.

Beautiful roads to every beauty meant for us to find.

we all come from somewhere

my apologies to those reviewing from the future

pearls you can eat

crawling from everything you know you can be stagnant philosophies oppressed by my own undertakings self-cultivation into yet darker realms beyond the seafloors underground networks where futures dwell bridges to interstellar forms caught a glimpse of what people still search for: instant realization proof is irrelevant if you're not still proving your life's paces words become stones and i give them life mere recognition and they show me time i showed them once and i can show them twice i'm not obligated to anything other than to explore new heights beyond recognition still witness the Divine art official everything in a natural line caught me on a quest second round still comin'?

i ain't cultivatin' less just cause they think they caught me frownin' roundhouse kickin' ass eight o'clock still poundin' thumpin' on my chest still keep my heart grounded caught the show first before they reached towers gold rivers for the thirst like interstellar showers their words shaped the burns

now we can shape the calists through all the twists and turns catch the ACE with no violence

If we came for you, it ain't to betray you.
Different circumstances. How many. How few.
Afraid to talk about you. I'm envious.
Even more envious of bridge builders aimless.
What if bridges went more than two directions?
What if snow caps didn't have to melt to glisten?
Don't sleep on them. Walk upon them.
If bridges could fly, who would be stopping then?

Contracted a wickedness of contracts.
A flash of light and I was free to go and free to come back.
Fell in love more than once. It pays to be honest.
A love unconfessed is a terrible way to punish.
I come from a well of gold. I turned into silver.
Turned into moss. Turned into mold. Turned into every story ever told.
Met a quipu keeper and studied how the numbers rolled.
Met a samurai and studied every paperfold.

Folds came mad and knots became cold.
I still write poetry like a big kid that never gets old.

Every honor could easily be yours.
One became eight and I opened the course.
Feedback from the future, my minis stay on tour.
Caught a divine spin still on a divine spur.
Free to share my secrets. Free to share theirs.
Tens, hundreds, thousands, now who's what where?
Kicked us off the bus, but I'm the skin werewolves wear.
And I'm a tenth French, so where's dessert?

Twenty years ago still ain't today.
And where I breathe don't ever stay the same.
Given all the tools to have the upperhand.
And shared the tools for free because I know I can.

True without guilt, I'm still afraid to love you.
Key to the Universe. Wouldn't you be, too?
Sad to say that we're revolutionaries in the worst possible ways.
But you don't have to be to enjoy your stays.

It's hard to say no. And sometimes harder to say yes.

I brought a pen to write. Let's write a book tonight.

I got a pen that transcends time and space.
So tell me why would I let it go to waste?

Best poetic, lyricist, whatever you wanna call it.
Slur every direction like, "Yeah. You know I said it!"

Don't know if I was writin' my ancestors or if you was writin' yours.
Only one number to reach you and used my solar camouflage.
Suddenly every blur in speech became a rose.
Fell in love with your glasses like you owned the catalog.
If not for you, I'd still be blind as the village.

I don't really play games, Why I'm gonna play you?

Enlightened. Was it Grandma? Was it Grandpa? Would you say you?

Enlightenment. Wasn't patience. Wasn't wisdom. Wasn't virtue.
Straight to ambrosia before I had the chance to say, "Thank you."

I knew a few folks from way around the way.
Developed a few grammars with a few more tools to play.
Met an advisor and laced her with some game.
Had a million kids with a million more to name.
If it was a list, it'd be Christmas everyday.
Everyday a family day. Everyday a picture frame.
Flowers would bloom the same day that it rained.

I had a full life of love wrapped into one day.
This day had a face. This day had a name.
Scared of this love, I tried to run away.
My love grew so strong beyond what I could tame.
I cried so hard the sky began to rain.
Lightning began to strike. The Earth began to shake.
Fires began to burn at the mere mention of your fame.
Looked in the mirror like I was the one to blame.
I'm sorry tomorrow that I love you so today.
I'd only love you more if tomorrow never came.
And the next day even more beyond our old and gray.
The same salty tremor on the same salty plane.
Caught glimpse of you before another placed a blame.
Wrote a million poems to shower you with rays.
Rays heavy as a feather. Rays moldable as clay.
A day beyond what words could ever say.

Lost in the glamour of a face that I once knew.
Lost in the possibility that it might possibly be true.
Chasing a whisper in a wind that I once cried to.
Songs chasing me right back to you.
Through disappointing ventures and a broken seal,
On a sister's birthday like industrial zeal,
We met again like nature's appeal,
"If your love is here, your love could be real."

Stayed up. Still coastin.
You want it. Come get it.
Frontin' for how long. Gotta pick up your trash still.
Forgot you forgot me when I was still considerin' still.
Stuck me. Runned me. Thought you ruined me, but I came from ruins, see.
Ask about me. You ain't heard yet.
I take it to 80. You take to 100. I take it to 100 and 80.
Mi plus yu plus the slang you ain't peepin', B.
Catch me when I'm gone. Got my lingo on. Spit it fresh like, what we speakin' on?
How you wanna tell me how to run my own changes.
Like you stepped up to the plate entered next to the 3 GREATEST.
Like you didn't try like I did to resist it. Like I'm not the FITTEST.
Turns out, I was probably put here to put your TRUEST to the TRUE TEST.
Like a brick through all windows. Like I don't do what you think though.
Be true. If it's you. If it ain't. Peep the gate. Loose jockeys catch a break.
Frontin' on me too long, I'm a sing me too many merry songs about how I tested myself.
QUESTION. I love you out the door.
Out the window. Out the floor. Out of anything before, anything to come, and even more.
HOWEVER. Keep testing until we're old and gray.
Keep testing until the maps I made just you YOU ALL wither and fade.
Like me or not. Love me or never find me. I know where your home is.
I'm building it. Maybe one day, we see us every morning when we wake up.
Maybe we wait for you forever. Don't find us until you love us.
Stay up and stay TRUE.

Got me skewing up the lingo. From Chinglo to BINGO!
To, "Incoherent rants I can't even think yo!"

Got every mile. Whatcha think I'm talkin' 'bout.
Slur it with a smile. Keep your fingers off the dial.
Banks stay on file. Whatcha think I'm talkin' 'bout.
Every whisper. Every echo. Every angle of every tile.

failure loves success.
time spoke to me.

it said my name.
it shared my words.
how do i measure measure a blessing standards of much and little how many empty books running from history ancestors heard me native to what our human nature love at my core why confused why dizzy why fever
the winds whsipered to us oceans cry too tears melt mountain
"am i just a word?"
i am not a gate guard
i am not lost

who are you really?
you found me first.
who heard me first?
could it really be you?

Where you at? Where I'm at?
Where you at? Where I'm at?
Kick it off and bring it back.
Don't get caught up in the trap.

Lovely birds. Lovely words.
Lovely slurs. Lovely hurts.
Mega love and no worse.
Mega hugs and met a first.

Made a fuss and met a force.
Meta mucked by metaphors.
Mega luck and lucky doors.
Lucky-struck a lucky source..

Vote with where I spend my time.
Vote with where I spend my mind.
Vote with where I spend my grind.
Let it go and let Divine.

Rewind and re-wine.
And realign to realize.
Focus on a realer prize.
Focus on the Truth inside.

Harmonize with outer life.
Keep me out of harmful eyes.
Keep you out of harmful eyes.
Harmonize without the lies.

Got me like I'm twisted metal, but I been true real since before syndicates placed a value.

I'm solid. No plates. No springs. Honest weight. It's the Truth that I speak. Is your vision askew?
Catch me after school. I stay on that extra credit, G. Kick them pretty shoes, check the frost on my pety feet.

I ain't need to front. Front for whom? They ain't even seen what I got. In all I do, stay true.
Act like you saw me before I saw you. I'm the winter in the valleys when the whispers come through.

Sparks at night? You didn't think I'd come to? Calling out your sirens like, "One lump or two?"
I'm a purista. So, naturally, too fucking cool. Hungry like a beast, but only settle for good food.
Known for breaking bread before I get to chew it. Tossing pearls upon the field like raining fire fluid.

I'm reaching higher, stupid. Close your oysters. Boisterous in my speech, because what you going to do? Tell my daddy?

True recognize True. I get daps from the beach. True lies ain't scared me from washing my own damned feet.

Haters, they're going to hate. Preachers they're going to preach. I ain't got no face to save. Stay true to my speech.

Match my pace on the street, you might see how I eat. No plaque or residue on my benevolent razor sharp teeth.

Don't facade with me and I won't have to blast through it. But if you blasting at me, you better be a Master, Cupid.

I got that arrow laced with active lucent potions concocted by the most spiritually affluent.
Ask about me.

Exercise! Work my mind! Catch a glimpse. Understand. More than meets the eye. More than shakes the hand. Sterilize your money band. You're funny man. But this is just a drill. Battle me for what? I already sold that dollar bill. You kill for money, chill. I spill it for the thrill. I'm not a savior, but I'll save you some speculation still. When I show the merchandise, it'll penetrate your mask and hurt your eyes. If you like the way I work a rhyme, the REAL shit gonna burn your mind. Ill shit set to fertilize. Vitamin D fortified. Your lines ain't got more than mine. Mock me? I'm immortalized. Surprise! I give rise to any conscious listener. I make rhymes so cold, but don't think that I'm a build a berg. So shut the front door when you hear me rippin'. Cause I'm about to bring that uncut magic you ain't gettin. And I don't stop. And I don't quit. And if you doubtin' my credentials, check microfilm print!

Some miss me with their eyes. Others miss me with their hearts. For a hero's journey never ends once it makes the start. The lowly one sees the subtle textures of the road. Separating what it has said from what it has been told. The greatest scenes aren't as captivating as those with true finesse, that can mesmerize royalty to pilgrimage with tons gold in chests. But is all an illusion if one has never grasped? Or is it a light that flickers from reflections of the past? For if one turns away from a lowly one approaching, may never know the true direction of where that road is going.

All territories invaded. No one is safe from this global devastation. Fire and ice make a partnership complacent, placin' all forms of life into a wasteland; never given serious time for contemplation. Racin' through all this time that has been wasted, wagin' wars when defenses should've been created. Now, it's up to us to find a way to escape this.

I'm stressin' the seriousness of this situation, tasteless pursuits are worthless and should be abated, taken aback for a new investigation, facin' the reality, no matter what the case is. Ancient traditions offer us an explanation, telling us about previous civilizations; some disappearing without leaving any traces, except for the tales that they haunt in religious pages.

Heavy steps for long roads. Dragging steps for long roads.
Long strokes for long roads. Bold strokes for long roads.
Old notes on long roads. New notes on long roads.
Helping hands on long roads. Empty hands on long roads.
Challenges on long roads. New triumphs on long roads.
Started along long roads. Still going along long roads.
Long roads to longer roads. Longer roads to longer roads.
Longer roads to longest roads. Longer than the longest roads.
Awesome these long roads. Awed some on these long roads.
Lost on a long road. Still forward on a long road.
Echoes through a long road. Breezes through a long road.
Found keys on a long road. Not alone on a long road.
Roadblocks on long roads. Show stops on long roads.
Walls became long roads. Elements to long roads.
Energy to long roads. Emptiness to long roads.
More emptiness to long roads. And Spring is here.

Seek and Find. The Courage within to search for LOVE.
Barrier through barrier. Notes point me to you.
One to withstand. One to inspire a hand to grow hands.
To walk through shadows and still find the best plan.
Winds whispering, "She loves you."
Me saying, "It must be TRUE."

Harmonized to my being 'til my meta force grew.
Narrowed my ADVISOR to SHU YUN LIU.
MY TRUE LOVE MONICA.

Day by day, I read.
Night by night, I dream.
I am not seeing what others see.
I cannot pretend to be.
Day by day, I deed.
Night by night, I seam.
I am not free as others free.
I cannot pretend to be.

They say his life was like trying to polish sand.
He tried to change the world, but he didn't understand.
The mysteries kept without his comprehend.
Until his speech changed from private studymment.
Now his slurs manipulate space and time.
As his choice words change pace and rhyme.
New stage in a new age to grace the line.
Few age so fine without rollin' a fake why.
So young even Truth decided to confide.
So many have tried make him fold but haven't noticed him behind.
Never does he creep. Never is he sly.
Ask a straight question. Get a straight reply.
He's a lover of the heart than a lover of the thighs.
He's a warrior for the peace; not a warrior for the prize.
Check the frequency and calibrate your mind.
If you haven't noticed his then you haven't noticed mine.
Harmonize with Love and Truth and be so Divine.
Reverse polarities of all intents to climb.
Descend into the darkness and discover streaks of light, Beasts that fly and answers to all questions of Why.

ain't no crosses can stop this neurotic law-breakin' opponent. i'm potent like the chemicals dumped into the ocean. special forces get tossed in the dungeons of my fortress when they cross this. i'm over a hundred wins with no losses. pay attention to who the boss is. i beat 'em, cook 'em, and eat 'em like an omelette and shit 'em out at the school on pacific and hardin'.
they caught me for graffiti but i'm never gonna stop it. i'm still rockin' and stompin' from the city of stockton. the cops can kiss they dirty ass of an autistic orphan cause i'm poor and don't give a shit about the issues of abortion cause the lower execs wanna see me in a coffin. they don't want me talkin' and they sure don't want me walkin' their game.

I don't play with spoiled brats instead I'm breaking their toys.
I bring terror to the towers like the network boys.
The gods run back into their caves when they hear my voice.
They know how hard I shake the heavens when I bring my noise.
I get the ear drums moist from the strength of my chords.
Clappin' my jaw. Slippin' and slappin' the length of my tongue.
Let it be known I am the eye of shiva guiding the storm.
I am the one risen from the dead the night he was born.

Who's been askin' for me? I'm here now fuck with me.
Spittin' your blasphemy. I'm here now fuck with me.
I'm the best motha fucka to ever rock the mic.
You can't fuck with me. You can't fuck with me.

I rock the mindframe like covert spy games.
It might pay well to pull out now and reinvest your faith

Wiping your hands free from the sins of your father. Thinking money can change me and my brothers. My brothers are warriors and we'll always be watching. Never forgetting the times of your carnage. The same with your father, no crimes are forgotten. Your slaves may be sleeping, but their tribes are still calling. And we'll be here waiting for the moment they wake up. And when they wake up, we'll shatter your walls.

I just don't believe what you're telling me. It's a lie covered with half-truths.

I just don't believe what you're telling me. It's a lie and you're a liar!

One chance to make it. One spark to drive the fire.
So many eyes and ears round about the wire.
Citizen flag sittin' in my gentleman's bag.
The politics have changed so pick up your pants.
Stunt drivers are low commission, and not on the payroll.
Stay low with your peers while I approach the payload.
Y'all show so little but say so much.
Well I ain't afraid to show the real size of my duck.
You dumb fucks! Need to change your motha fuckin' program!
You slow down and never get a second go round.
Slippin on your dough while I'm sippin' on my red wine.
Next time'll never come if you never come change your mind.

I stand alone. So I was born. So I shall die.
No fear on my quest to uncover the lie.
You might try to pretend that it don't exist.
That it's just a minor problem that needs to be fixed.
But I know the difference between day and night.
And I've learned the difference between wrong and right.
It's the difference in perspective between yours and mine.
And I stand alone. So I was born. So I shall die.
We never have to.

One on your car. One on your home.

What are they called? You call them loans.
They call them leashes on a dog's throat.

They give you drugs. They keep you buzzed.
They keep you lost and looking for love.
What does it cost them? Nothing. They own it all.

Jump on the boat. Or stay on the coast.
No second thoughts. Follow your heart.
You can't deny you wanna reclaim your soul.

The price is high and your margin is low.
But you must admit you're attracted by the glitz and glitter glow.

With or without. All up to you.
We're moving on. You could be too.
So choose your allegiance wisely because you could be next.

How you tear your brother down?
How you tear your mother down?
How you toss the blame around?
I see no one else around.

Quick and dirty dollar bills.
But can it cure the pain you feel.
Trying hard to keep it real.
Off to make another deal.
Passing your share of the pie.
To rich men wearing suit and tie.
While you let your brothers die.
While you make your mothers cry.
Tell me how you think it's right.
To live like vultures in the night.
While suits and ties keep on the rise

You're all so styling but you all look the same.
Talk the same. Walk the same. Waddle like a duck the same.
Fuck your game. Fuck your name. I'll fuck you up all the same.
Fuck you're lame. Fuck the rain. I reign supreme.
Gimmie, gimmie, gimmie, gimmie the mic.

I'll take your whole fucking limb so don't put up a fight.
You might think you got skill, but none like me.
If your words can kill, mine can make the dead blink.
You're washed up and dry. I'm flossed up and clean.
I file 1099, but you don't know what that means.
It means smoked gouda cheese. Arabica beans.
A candle lit dinner with a queen and not a fiend.
Peep game before you step. And come correct.
All eyes are on me because I get respect.
From your mom. From your pops. Your sisters and your cousins.
And from any real motha fucka that ain't fronting.

Running for the riches, you stay eating my dust.
You still playing the same games I'm still stepping it up.
My game is strong, well-toned, and fitted with bucks.
And just like Vin Diesel, I can kill with a cup.
My single-origin whole beans blast your Lipton tea bags.
You're sipping on Moscato while I'm smashing on Napa Stag's.
You drink from a cup. I drink from a glass.
You puff and you pass. I hold and I drag.
You're a copycat clown. I'm so hot and original!
Look around... Ain't nobody can put it the way I put it down.
Crooked frowns from dirty hounds don't scare me!
The way I will cook you all will make you think I'm Chinese.
So it's fine by me if you bringing the beef.
I got the beach bonfire and the dirty rotten teeth.
And the stamina to back it up. Go ask your mother.
Juicy raw truth. My roots are deep in the gutter.

The future is now and our children are the past.
What we conjure up today is what will fertilize to our plants.
Zombies hunting zombies. Was it Co op or Deathmatch?
Or is there a difference, Well, here's a new plan.

To comprehend the method let's throw out the old playbooks.
Cause the way they look now they're nothing more than just bait hooks.
Stay close and follow. Don't let the language lead you on.
Entertainment that's mindless creates mindless pawns.

The power is in us. The development team.

So, what are we developing and what does it bring?
My proposal is this. Kick some knowledge to the kids.
But bringing education also brings along some risk.

So how do we develop without losing appeal?
Create a new world with knowledge bombs in the field.
I know what you're thinking, "This guy's gone mad."
But let me explain some adventures we could have.

I'm a treasure hunter digging through history.
Oh wait, we did that. But did we do it properly?
Ways to improve would be simply adding to the content.
Here's a case in point. Call it a proof of concept.

I'm the same treasure hunter digging through the past.
Like Carmen Sandiego running across the map.
What's more amazing than fiction are cold hard facts.
Like the things we can do and what we already have..

Apply mystery spells like the DaVinci Code.
Maybe Dan Brown should be hired for the storyboard.
Action-packed mechanics with captivating hooks.
That get the kids digging feverishly through the books.

Ghosts from the past dancing in the shadows.
He looks out the window. No one's there.
Lost in a memory of dirty wet clothes.
He looks on his shirt. Nothing's there.
He changes his attire. Time to retire.
No one's looking. Shake the spot.
Fire on his heels. He covers his tracks.
Set his vision fast forward. There's no looking back.
Big city means gotta have big city dreams.
He builds a new closet and keeps it nice and clean.
Historical data remains a mystery.
Must be a malfunction in the machine.
Compass in his hands, he still lacks direction.
Squares all around, but he's never accepted.
He recludes old ties to make ends meet.
Reducing the mouths mothers need to feed.
Strolling down the street on a winter night.

Contemplating life. No escape in sight.
Rich vs. poor. He's somewhere in between.
Doing what he can to keep his money clean.
Continuing his stroll down the empty street.
All lights turn green. What does it mean?
Empty hopes for empty dreams. He drops to his knees.
His arrogance has shifted to a humble retreat.

When I get it on. I spit it raw.
You here to play games. Well, play on, playah.
I'm here to stay on. So bring it if you want.
I'm callin' all bluffs. So don't act tough.
Rough with the speech and I don't kiss and tell.
Straight to the top and I ain't tryin' to fail.
No time for you haters. See you later. I'm up and out.
See ya when you bring your game up to your mouth.
I hear your dirty whispers dancing on the vine.
I send toast to you all over every glass of wine.
And every rhyme I spit is a testament.
I stay one above and you can't mess with it.
Humble in the flesh. On the mic, no I'm not.
Yeah I'm truly blessed, Give a damn if you not!
Pay my dues. Decisions I choose.
And I ain't confused when I make my move.

Money Come. Money Go. Gimmie this. Gimmie that.
Things you want. Things you don't. Where ya from? Where it's at?
San Joaquin. Hit N Run. Vapor One. Represent.
Everyday. Everynight. Stockton Boy. Don't forget.
All the way. To the end. Never fake. Never lie.
Rip it up. Bring it back. Do me wrong. Do you right.
Whatcha want. Bring it up. Chew you up. Shit you out.
Flush the bitch. Wipe my ass. The next stop is your house.
Get your girl. Piggyback. Tell me what you think of that.
Little boy. Little raps. Meet the back. Of my hand.
You hardcore? (Nahhh...) Soft like my penis.
When I reach my climax in your mamas cha-cha.
Fix your face. I kill the place. But you already knew.
My shit stay funky. Make your face turn blue.

Hey Homie! Don't you know me? You knew me when you blew me.
Let me kick you a kite. Now run it back to me.

Front if you want. I keep it on blast.
Keep your fingers off me. You'll find 'em up your ass.
Dust to dust. What you got in between?
Nothing like me. You still blinded by greed.
Dig deep. Dig deep. Tell me what do you see.
Empty aggression protecting fear and misery.
Spitting quite loose, but you ain't loose with the tears.
Fronting like you ready, but you don't know what comes near.
Stormy weather brings together birds of a feather.
Whether or not you get it doesn't really matter.
You lost in the fog. You stay on decay.
Your people die with you. You're fading away.
Sinking or swimming is not the ultimatum.
The only ultimatum is the one that you made up.
War and depression with the buttons that you're pressing.
The zombies gonna wake up with an appetite for flesh and....

You must got me twisted; think I'm sprung off that.
You sprung off ya past experiences with peers in your class.
Let me peel a bit back; fill you in on the past.
I molested so many minds with just a pen and a pad.
Nonchalant with the jazz, I entertain for the laugh.
I got trophies tossed in stacks. I came, saw, and I taxed!
From pigeons with no class to mistresses and spoiled brats.
Picked 'em up and dropped 'em off like their business was doin' bad.
I'm known for flippin' the script like I was flippin' a stag.
Loud mouths and dirty drama; passed 'em off as second-hand.
Gothics and angels, I couldn't detail every fad.
Skinny tips and fat caps. Independant pack rats.
So many creampies, got me askin' for double bags.
Think I'm easy to pull, you better reconsider that.
Don't let speculation turn into folly.
When you ain't workin' with facts, is it a mistake? Prolly.

She gave me life! Taught me the greys of right and wrong. A martyr for her son to make better decisions than her own. Destroyed herself. Killed her health. And while I watched her die, I burned in Hell. I was speechless. My blinks tense. Water in the bucket like a Spring mess. I was dreamless. Pricked by a thorn on the stem of a black rose. And as I rose to kiss her, she left on a black horse. And so I made haste to make waste. My state of mind chased with lime and salt to disguise the taste. Expressionless face with a typical smile. Toasts to good cheer like when I was a juvenile. Reminiscing as my thirst grew. Alone and past curfew. Wandering aimless. Judgments askew. Stumbling through the hall of a dark past. And as a devil sat beside me, she offered a stark laugh. The conversations that ensued proved me a fool. My eyes opened as I sobered up to a new view. But why fake. I still cry when I wake. As my tears cake, I brush them off flake by flake. I will not let other mothers succumb to the same fate. And I will not let their children be guided by blind hate. And if I ever only have one thing to prove, it's that society will reflect everything in you, you, you.

They say I came up fast. Where the fuck I get this cash?
Why do I drink wine from a glass? Why's my dick up in they ass?
I was never good in class. 9th grade, never made it past!
Full of Phillies filled with grass. No one thought I would ever last.
But they loved how I shaped my words. The way I'd go off and noun a verb.
The way I could vocally rape a vowel. The way I make my grammar sound.
They never heard my stomach growl. Homeless in Frisco without pal.
Stuck on the street with no place to turn. Now everyone know this boy can burn!
It's funny how the weather can change. The economy down, but my cheddars glazed.
Flipped the script now I'm center-stage. Scarin' you kids when I rattle the cage.
The beast has come and there's nowhere to run.
And there's nowhere to hide.
It's time to kick up some dust!
It's time to kick some behind.
When you look in my closet...
What you think you gon' find.

The shit you think you know. You ain't know shit.
Cause you heard me with a straight speech. Didn't know that I could flip.
But I'm a street cypher. Street writer.
My urine cake the corner of all your clean night club.
El Dorado and Hazelton. Under that bridge.
That's the spot where Vapor One lived as kid.
Heroin cookin' in a cardboard village.
Gangsters frequently came to rape and pillage.

Whores in a circle givin' what they give.
Bitches wanna know why I did what I did.
But they be like long legs waitin' for a victim.
So tell me why you expect there to be a difference.
You might think you tight cause you are who you are.
But my name dissipates and it still reach far.
Ask someone about me. Say my real name.
Check the Bureau file. Tell me how many page?
Private time in the Hole. Tell me how many days?
So many ways to die. So tell me, why stay?
Think I give a fuck about ghetto style game?
I'm here to leave a mark! Not add to the stain!
When my mother looks upon me. She should feel no shame.
Cause I'm more than a man dancing with slaves.

When the day runs I dry make it up through the night.
IPAs by the pint. Ugly bitches lookin' right.
Chop it up on the side with a couple of jabs at her mind.
Time to switch up the vibe and put this shit on LIVE.

Catch my fingers in the goose with a couple of laughs.
Run the bitch off my lap with a swift kick in the ass.
I'm known for flippin' the script like I was flippin' a stag.
And Stag's Leap got me twisted with that Napa Valley Cab.

Slur a toast with some red wine. Chocolate covered grapes.
Undercover snakes. Slippery on the slopes.
Keep your arms around your cake.
Keep your nose sniffing my business and catch an overdose on your mistakes.

Sleepers wake up dizzy. Wonderin' how they missed me.
Filthy cups filled with rocks drowning in my whiskey.
Chase the Bourbon with some Scotch. Who down to do it with me?
Get the feather outcha ass and stop actin' like a sissy.

I don't write rhymes for slaves to dance in the club.
I spit flows, rip jaws like jackin' for gold.
You rip slow. I rip flows over cotton-betrayed souls.
Pass me a peso and I'll pass you a bag so....

Call me a criminal. Or call me what you want.
In the gutter, it's all the same so call it what you want!
You hope a new card plays out. I fuck with what I'm dealt.
You pass me a dollar. I pass a dose of fuck your health.
Shop the shelves for Third-world manufactured filth.
And manufacture yourself some degree of "not yourself."
And if you lost your wealth. You can blame yourself.
Hate that I crossed the Atlantic? Three times go fuck yourself!
But if you recognize, I run it three by five.
Ghosts play dead when a tune is played just right.
Show me some math and be shown a fool's prize.
Stealth becomes wealth and it shows in due time.

Frontin' on the game like they own their own sentiment.
Until the tables turn and they lose their own heritage.
Killing their own brethren. Ask me who is better then.
Looking for an escape but ask me who it benefits.
Mixing with the shadows they disappear in the light.
Faces in the pack come and go like day and night.
Street piranha with cannibalistic appetites.
When the odds change see the ones who stay and fight.
Their deconstructive lyrics might spit and mix well.
But tell me who in the gutter truly lives well.
The ones with whom it truly sits well.
Are the ones sitting up above who truly originate from Hell.
Ruining lives without a conscience.
Losers with rights give up and watch this.
If you can live like this is in God's hands.
Then you're also behind all this destruction.

Spent a quarter of my life on the run.
Now I'm all squared up. So what you tellin' me, son.
Check it, fo' you wreck it cause I done seen that.
Your ass stay on flat cause you stay on blast.
And I stay on gas. My foot floor it to the max.
You pushin' on a track. I'm pullin' on my back.
Catch me in the middle of it all.
And watch me rise as a kingdom falls.
Act too hard and catch a sneak attack.

Lose all your jewels and your sneakers, black.
Thought you was famous til they rip your anus.
Tattoos on your back of naked pretty ladies.
Real gutter knows a bitch on the street.
And real mothers know which of their kids to eat.
And I'm still here.
And I know what the towers of Babylon fear.
It's the vapors of history that whisper in the ear.
It's the shapeless adversaries incubated within tears.
Cut loose before they can develop into warriors.
And rise up against the powers meant to destroy us.
So while you front, I stay on the hunt.
You play your little games. And make your little gains.
I'm up and at 'em. Ready to deliver to them blows.
I don't spit it for the show. I spit it for them know.
Whatever them throw. Me gonna stay grow.
Wherever the dope shit go. That's where my shit go.
Ask me how I made it, I'm have to say this:
Me mother made me 'member: Survival of the fittest.
So if the shoe fits, I think I'll wear it.
If you're an asshole, my foot can bear it.
I have a big heart and still they say that I'm careless.
Tell them haters they can go click "Like" and "Share" it.
Come again. What? Them cakes still gonna front.
Laugh at them all as they choke upon their bad luck.
They money losin' value. They cheddar catchin' mold.
They ugly usin' valium hopin' they never catch a cold.

Your chords entertain. Mine rock the mindframe.
Your superficial terms could never comprise the right phrase.
And my phase is light years away.
Where you play today, tomorrow I reign.
Where you kick up dust. I kick up the plane.
You slow up and rust. I roll up and slay.
Hope you like dragons. Cause you know the saying.
Get in where it's at nephew and quit playin'.
Your primitive mind shows through primitive rhymes.
You keep it in time, but you ain't keepin' with mine.
Your lyric lacks the spirit to keep it divine.
Maybe cause you lack the courage to speak up to crime.
I'm speakin' my mind, cause I ain't speakin' to grind.

I'm speakin' to find out who's dick is bigger than mine.
You pour out some liquor. I pour out some wine.
And they pour out champagne every time we die.
So open your eyes and realise the real lies.
Your bullshit influences the lives of new minds.
And cool rhymes in due time will lose flavor.
So if you 'bout it for real, do your kids a favor.
Kick down some real knowledge to the temple.
Let 'em know that black and white ain't so simple.
Where the Truth is at is where we wanna be.
But how we get to that is who's responsibility?
It yours! It's mine! It's the fuckin' community.
So where you at? Stand up unless you PUSSY!
Fuck a keyword. I call it GOD's word.
Lay it upon ANY Pussy unwilling to do GOD's work.
And if the high-heels fit, then gets ta struttin',
And if you can't build shit, then quits the frontin'.
And if you ain't bout shit, don't call me your cousin.
Don't call me a brother, don't call me nothin'!

Brief case. Wheat laced. Ask them what those fiends take. Sweet gaze. Cheeks blazed.
Crooked what her teeth say.

Peak haste. Seek grace. Geometric street maze. Offerings. Please take. Whores on powdered leaf base.

Catch the lips' attention on a mention of a clean plate. More than whats afforded by a purchase for a sweepstakes.

Catch a missed connection with affection for a lean waist. Extortion aborted by engineering with a mean face.

Clean slate. Clean skates. Circuit jockey-clean gates. Processing. Please wait. Trojan horses.
Leaked waste.

Wash them with a clean taste. Chocolate covered cream cakes. Sodomized with trees flaked.
Rocky roads and sweet glaze.

Work them at a lean wage. Bonding for a weak rate. ETFs on deflate. Write them off for rebates.

Hungry for it, why wait. Snickers over beef steaks. Cabernets from '88. Pinkies up and play it straight.

Light creates shadows and empty space. One contemplates if two eyes are plenty. Three degrees of grey. Four dimensions play. Five squares in a circle. Six days of fame. Seven, eight, nine. Now ten is afraid. 11 plus a fake. The 12 regenerate. 13 on her way. 14 made to wait. 15 make it great. 16 at the base. 17 laid to waste. 18 with a face. 19 in a race. 20 digits in a flame. 21 silver plates. 22 wicker rakes. 23 wicked days divided by a gauge. A quarter of it lost in an alphabet's maze. Three boxed for the date before the leap's made. All is gone without a trace. 30 years keeping pace. 31 lost states. 32 secret mates. Go-go gadget legs. Answered questions Ultimate. 43 Shogunates. Si Shi Si on its way. Stuart Little at the Bay.

Savage like my maker. Rhymes are my container.
Fury writes with pure delight to cure me right.
The next sheet molested.
Ink from my erected pen with an infection waiting to violate the next one.
And guess what. I don't do this in jest, son.
You the best one? Nah, you still lost on the question.
My originalitactics are only the tip of the facts, kid.
I'm hotter than Ice blocks of selenate acid.
Like a cancer of past tense. Angiogenesis action.
Sodium blocks lost in a glass of liquor and passion.
Slur while I breathe with venom and drip.
Don't catch it and slip. Catch me gone in the mist.
Wrong game in the mix. Get slain like a min - e - on.
In a mill - e - on, you catch one that can feel me on
That upper level of mechanical linguistic pyrotechnics.
False affection for my nexus of rapid dialectics
Entertain me and so I'm obliged to return it with a vengeance.
Get at me. Don't spit at me

Lost her way on her way to find the right way.
Spotted by crocodiles spittin' the right game.
Money makes a habit. Caffeinated wine grapes.
A monkey takes the rabbit. Liberated white skates.

Shifty accents speakin' like what happens is kept safe.
Empty passion beatin' like second-handed fosgates.
Rocked subs to the con to keep the mind straight.
Layered up the soils upon soiled lingerie.

Don't forget to pay respect to all things passed.
Crickets in the bushes. Snakes in the grass.
Flames with no ignition leave stains in the ass.
Answers to questions no one dared to ask.
Disposable sock puppets are a thing of the past.
As the collective mind begins to crawl from the cracks.
What's wrong with the law is what's wrong with the pack.
Asking about this while you pointing to that.
I'm pointing to this and stay strong in my path.
Keep up with me and be immune to the crash.
Instead of chasing money and other obsolete cash.
Wake up and position yourself . Envision yourself.

I'm spittin' so y'all can ride through the tide.
But if y'all stay frontin' all I can do is say bye.
Better start handlin' yours cause I'm handlin' mine.
And if you ain't know by now, it's a serious time.
The People are rising, you can see on the line.
Shit is gettin' real. And it's really gettin' live.
You still frontin' on this, but I'm at the front of the lines.
You wonder what it means, it means hurry and decide.
Only two sides of a fence. You can't pick both sides.
Run up and support or run away and hide.
No time for flakes as the stakes begin to rise.
Wake up and envision yourself. Position yourself.

I spit game raw like moans from next door.
Pretend you never saw. Wished I penetrate yours.
Your extended claws pressed upon my metaphors.
No need to manifest the words that escape my jaw.
And as you contemplate pies divided by eight.
I demonstrate true genius as I recalibrate.
As the steam dissipates what's left on the plate.
Not a god damn thang! Chuck the deuce! Peep the gate!

I'm beginning a beginning of the end of your beginning.
Catch me as I'm grinning sideways while I'm spinning.
The laws of man apply to man.
And it's hard to understand just what I am.
Keep your whispers in your head and keep the webs out your hands..
I bruise third eyes with a vineger hand.
Call me a cynical man. But it's critical man.
I'm gettin' 'em mad, cause they're still in the sand.
My cold teeth are just trophies.
Remnants of the evils that approach me.
If you know me then you know me.
And you know how I get down with that soul, B.
Obnoxious when I spit it so cold, see.
Don't curse the empty pillow in the morning.
Raw streets call for raw treats.
Lost beasts breathin' softly.
Three raps at your door. Keep your mind pure.
A shake of the hand might be a shake of a lure.
Shake a leg and don't drag it on the floor.
Lest you find yourself worse off than before.

Brace yourself! Brace yourself!
Brace yourself! Embrace yourself!
Change yourself! Rearrange yourself!
Nothing holding you back but yourself!
Believe in yourself! Believe in yourself!
Believe that yourself can believe in yourself!
Get to know the things you want to change in yourself!
Change the things you want to get to know in yourself!
Build yourself! Build yourself!
Build the things you want to see built yourself!
Time waits for no one and neither should yourself!
Neither should you wait for time yourself!
Think for yourself! Think for yourself!
Think for new ways to think for yourself!
Think within the wisdom about yourself!
Think about the wisdom within yourself!

I'm on that magic. You think it's a scheme.
Ain't no hocus pocus about the way I breathe.
Dope mind. Clear eyes. Dirty hands. Clean feet.
Mess with the best. Die with the meek.
You stay passive aggressive on a march to defeat.
Paper-clippin' madness gotcha chasin' sails of the weak.
Slippin' oyyyyyyyyyyyyyyyye.....
And I'm on that ass like the kitty don't speak.
But the kitty done spoke and the kitty do leak.
And the Fifty don't lie about the Lincoln on the street.
Spittin' incomplete dirty mints down the sink.
Snickers heavy over red wine and dead meat.
Blasphemy in every bad itch you reach.
Brush the cookie crumbs over the rest on the beach.
Sneak a toke of good health and loose speech.
Juice the heirlooms of your mother's loose seems.

Axe somebody, yain't heard about me!
Hot boxed the Grand Tz. Toys burnt by the breeze.
My words press magic. Not an impotent spree.
I'm spiritually free. Not a master on his knees.
Smack yo funny ass worryin' 'bout me.
Your friends lookin' at you like a liability.
What the love you thought that was drippin' from my teeth.
I maximize the ponty on a ponzi scheme. PLEASE!
Riches cake the liquid that paste through your stream.
Spittin' straight, I'm in it to wipe that shit clean.
Thought you was venom, but you can't burn fleas.
On like you in 'em, but you ain't seen 'em leave.
My raps don't knock. They bang times three!
You chase an illusion. I fortify the dream.
I'm more than delighted to give you pearls you can eat.
Spank you, kindly. Your b0rked ass can now leave.

And they stay on widdit. Mother's lovers actin' like they know.
But they don't know mole from mold. And they don't know code from cold.
Cost the whole controlled potential opponents to overflow.
And they stay on widdit. Mother's lovers actin' like they know.

And the tears they just begin to pry and the fears they just begin to hide,
There's one right place to try for them to accrue new wealth and that's inside.

And they stay on widdit. Mother's lovers actin' like they know.
But they don't know show from sow. And they don't know soul from sold.
Lost the goal to gold and grow to old you-know-whats loathing all their woes.
And they stay on widdit. Mother's lovers actin' like they know.

And as the years they keep a runnin' by and the fields they keep a runnin' dry,
There's no one left alive to place the blame on for their own demise.

And they stay on widdit. Mother's lovers actin' like they know.
But they don't know foe from bro. And they don't know bro from foe.

Dost thou hold true what the tongue hast told or hast thou lost the reins of thine own soul.

I once used to live in a cave.
And I used to write on these pages.
And I don't know why the sky...
Decided to turn so bright...
But I know who was there by my side.
And I know who was there for the ride.
There were tides that were low and tides that were high.
And your beautiful face shows every time
That I recall a memory.
Of me tacklin' a new mystery.
And if there was ever any doubt...
There was no doubt you were there with me.

Fuck a soundcheck. I chin check with the mic across your tapedeck.
You ain't shit and you ain't said shit to make shit any different than before you interrupted the beat to explained shit.
Kill dat noise from you and ya boys. Potato head drama with earrings and a voice.
You and ya crew like cookin' crack with no one to sell it to. And who the fuck sold it to you?
You and ya squad like tryin' to sell 14.4 baud to a T1 block. Oh muh God!
I think I even saw you and your team the victim of a Mr. Bean on a Facebook meme.
See brudda man. I'm not like any udda man. I rock lyrical terror better than the Taliban.
But if you actually knew suh ahn impoh ahn... You'd know true terror is by the hands uh ya runnah man.

But I digress. And though you might test the Gift of God with which I've been blessed, let me lay some shit to rest.

No. I am not from your crew. THOUGHT YOU KNEW! Though I know when I'm tried by someone new.

And yes. I do build GREAT things. The likes of which you'll never see through. No soup for you! For instance, the wisdom you pass on I pissed on in my last existence. You with this?

And I got on phonetic transliterations you forgot was embedded in your scriptchas. Stiwwimmie bruh.

Bakkinda dai we hadh perrsonal spellers and gramatizings. Fo yall stotted standdudizing. To put it in a layman's thumb: All your magic silverware are came from us. Now, BACKUDDABUS!

So you think I don't have a chance to blaze the scene.

But you have less than that to follow what I speak.

Let alone tell the difference between shoes and feet.

So how the fuck you think you gon' keep up with me?

Text ya mans, mah. Check muh hands, bruh.

Front whatcha like, I don't share the fears that you dodge.

And you lost a clue all the way back when you thought you knew who the fuck I was.

Well, guess what!

I do the fuck I want. I spit on the front lawn like diving a new broad and post it on my wall.

And you? What! Pay off a paid whore hopin' she don't stray off and find her face on News 4.

So, who're you huh? 'Chu gonna huh?

Your step is quite fresh, but you ain't brought nothin' new. Ugghhhhhhhhh....

Meanwhile, I slap with invisible hands. Asymmetrical math with sodium and...

I dance around the physics of all your contraband.

I'm beyond Wikileaks and Iran-Contra and...

Anything your colorful mind would ever comprehend.

Silly li-ill pilgrim, I ain't from here, man.

So let's pretty please set this record straight.

Rap at the door if that's your cake.

Anything beyond that is beyond mistake.

Don't fuck with my party and you won't lay in my plate.

And I know too well how birds flock together.

But when you're in my realm, you obey my weather.

So pack a heavy coat and an extra sweater.

Cause all your AI are like me better.

Fire on my breath. Barbed wire on my sled.

Vampires all fled. Kick that melancholy bread.
Soaked in they sadness, they pass it like a hit.
And I kick that garlic salad like a prison spread. Get out what you put in.
You move in the direction you put your foot in and the good men will run into the true men doin' what they couldn't.
And if you is the clueless laymen bein' recruited, keep those boots in the right posture when you put your dues in.
Ice on my breath. Werewolves on my sled.
Catch a winter fairy tale shape the future of yurr churren.
And if you're with the villains, then you're in for a whirlwind.
360 degrees committed by the hands of True men.
Quarter of a million drops creepin' through your blue skin..
Whispers in the alleys askin' questions that you wouldn't.
The blueprints that you get got ink blots from the new writ.
And you get confused with the language when you shouldn't.

Got me on that cookoo. Crazy, I'm a con.
Trollin' with that lingo. Soft hands on the drum.
Rhymes with a pretzel and a slow waddle.
Venom with a sizzle. You want 'em. I got 'em.
My code extrapolation ships with vivacious lips.
Opera Shin: Don't forget to dot those tips.
One mind layer dynamically inclined..
To break away the chains in a cycle of decline.
Brisque Ques in the yard. Metal forged in the flame.
Vapor eyes all evil and the prize is all day.
This track shun't set you in the wrong direction.
Cover your eyes and let the messages set in.
MUN keyin' around. Blackboard's catchin' mold.
Junk keys to the crown. Chalk smears what its told.

For the ones before who sacrificed to pave my floor.
To blaze my core and deliver me from darkness.
From the wicked that distracted me and guided me deeper into the hole.
Those benevolent hands which never softened their hold.
The faith invested in the purity of my soul.
In the clarity of my goal. In the charity to bestow.
Life beget life. And to sustain it, some must go.
As some sayings go, "Do what thou wilt, henceforth."

And whence I came shall one hope to never know.
The filth-caked walls of desperate spirits trapped home.
Where the shredded tread of weather boots shield blistered soles.
And the whistlers know the Truth of the alleys where the village grows.
Where the hustlers row. Where the jugglers roll.
Where the smugglers flow. Where the mothers whore.
Where the whispers linger from friends lost long ago.
I wander aimless as the memories pour.
Rarely by myself, but I'm always alone.
Drowning out my sorrows with red grapes and bad form.
Shouting loose jeers like tuition-paying porn.
More than two faces on to spare another heart woe.
I carry the burden by choice so I'm obligated to carry on.
But my chambers grow weak when I hear the birds sing a song.
And I sing along. Sharing in the wailing of a winter psalm.
God give me the wisdom to moderate and be strong.
To never be deceived by those whose feet stall.
By those whose knees crawl. By those who cheat all.
Give me the courage to reprieve faults.
To ever be conceived as food for thought to feast on.
To rise above oppressors wherever they cast their feet upon.
This is for the cattle, y'all. This is for the ones who sing the battle song.
Don't get it twisted. I still remember from where I come.

Danced in a drunken stupor. Fellas can't believe
I still ain't fell off. No scuffs on my knees.
No coughs when I speak. Bourbon on my teeth.
Mint fresh when I breathe. No scum on my team.
No songs for birds to sing. No dogs for bees to sting.
Cats purring at my feet. Nothing here for them to eat.
I dine with a queen. And keep the house clean.
我的城堡比你的城堡干净

The magic in my lyric is a mirror of my spirit.
No clouds in my vision and I'm true to what you're hearin'.
I don't slump in a ruin nor do I fear it.
Bigger fish to fry so why would I stay near it.
Beggin' for a lesson, so whatcha think I'm doin'?
Class is in session. Started when you blew in.
I'm known for breakin' bread before I get to chew it.
The wisest of men masquerade as the foolish.

Through the halls echo faint knocks at the door.
The legend has taken on yet another form.
Duty calls but the fake hide inside the dorm.
Holding fast and dear to depleted lucky charms.
Their filthy hands just can't resist open sores.
Their filthy plan is to shields their riches from the poor.
Their filthy lands are pillaged ruins left from their wars.
This is how they use their treasures from the stars.

Dancing with shadows its hard for them to keep up.
Whispers in the alley everytime I lift a tea cup.
They run the numbers game. I walk the idea.
Cypher and a dance. Who can do it like me, uh?
Shift shapes like a dream. Clean slates where I leave 'em.
Circuit jockeys at the gates. Trying to catch a peek of...
How the monkey dance and still keep his drink up.
And merge to Master Branch without even a hiccup.

I'm from cold streets.
With dirty weathered sneakers.
And y'all can't change me.
I don't wanna be ya.

Y'all counterfeit riches.
And glorify sin.
And I think its senseless.
There's more in life than this.

I've searched for the Truth.
And knocked from door to door.
Asked me to keep aloof.
So I travailed to the source.

If I betray my people.
God strike me down with lightning.
Ten thousand knives in my eyes.
Hang me like a tyrant.

Now I make big things.
How you wanna bring it?

Cause I make clean strings.
You don't wanna see me.

Y'all bring stale mates.
Masters mind winds.
And I bring a quiver filled.
With the family vanes.

Eight by eight.
Horseback as spring breaks.
Make haste and keep pace.
Or stay across the lake.

Eighty-one seen shapes.
Donkeys dance and lose the way.
Cousins ripping off the page.
Nephews dip the brush in paint.

Simple minds play games.
Simpler minds win.
Tender minds may makes flames.
Open minds dim.

If you want treaties.
Makes concessions.
Don't taint a clean handshake.
With insincere skin.

I'm from cold streets.
With dirty weathered sneakers.
And y'all can't change me.
I don't wanna be ya.

Y'all counterfeit riches.
And glorify sin.

Don't taint a clean handshake.
With insincere skin.

Kick it with that raw jive.
Now which direction you think I'm gon' dive?
Lost in that parallax cross eyed.
I'm beyond black and white. Why I'm gon' lie?

Front like you might be on mine.
But you might be more the type to drop dimes.
Talkin' about loose change on a summer day.
But they warn ya 'bout me on that aerosol spray.
Don't get carried away.
Runnin' ya spooks like I'm afraid of winter break.
I'm more like in the fray for a quick dinner plate.
No time for dessert, when I squeezed a first date.
Splash the pot like I got no breaks.
I guess the rap sheet hot, they wanna see where I play.
Crack the flint and drop a deuce on the jake.
Jack that wallet like a fake Harlem Shake.
Vintage pirate ships at the bottom of the lake.
Lost pieces of the puzzle in the hands of the Great.
And guess who just happens to be by my side.
Sure you must've seen 'em from time to time.
Must be hard to spot with a synthetic eye.
I'm smashin' the party when your pheromones run dry.
Catch me in the fairy tales they gon' write.
Kickin' my slogans like raw jive.

Spit raw about how you spit raw.
But watch how I rip jaws for a real cause.
Cause I don't give damn about fresh bars.
Follow along if you think that you can, boss.

Low-level hole puncher run amok.
Here I am chest thumpin' like, "WHAT!" And what?
A bit too much to bite off. My words don't bluff.
Double up the ante, while some push to go pop.
Closed gates recalibrate to old states.
I'd elaborate, but I might offend some primates.
The cursive in my func keep my mind awake.
In sleep, I'm elusive. Hard to try and you late.
I dance in and out of shadows.
Where vibrance turns to stone.
Where magicians roam and the whistles blow.
Where the wick end can never ever go.
The trumpet grazes the cheek.
The truth is the Truth is beyond syntactic speech.
And while I'm at this scene. Who you think's this man you see.

How you think these light waves comin' at you, G.
If you din't mind, I mite anser ye.
In stead, I leave the questions at my feet.
The histories of histories is wax on leaf.
The true histories have been lost at sea.
All along the shore scattered by the beach.
One can collect but cannot buy to see.

Delegates mixed with half-blood royal surrogates.
DNA meddlers slaughtered by their own sediments.
Anons in the castle like Monsanto in another pest.
White rabbits askin' me how deep does the tunnel get.
Follow it and wander back. Go Ask Alice then,
Bring her through the hood like the bitch never heard of it.
Neglected as one's ever been. Deprived of the rudiments.
Suckers in the alley, arrogant in their foolishness.
Preachers holding sermons with a page that's counterfeit.
Slick douche nozzles poised in a new pamper wet.
Stark raving mad, as I cruise like a hurricane.
Chillin' like a villain. Better ask, if you haven't yet.
Underpaid weathermen looking for a better tent.
Neighbors boarding windows up hoping they can ride it in.
Whiskey and some Vicodin. Betting on entitlements.
Shocking that the doctrine states: Those without, try again.
Climbers on the ladder unaffording of a helping hand.
Plumbers underground trying to deal with the elements.
Dancing with their skeletons, Trying hard to bury them.
Forgetful of the tracks left behind by their heroin.
I spit it thick like that winter phlegm choking up congressman.
Vapor One Eternal. Act like you ne'er heard of him.
Smoke and mirrors leave him truly and quite unimpressed.
Step yo' game up if you really trying to get in this.

It all starts now. Flip what you know.
Maximize strength. Flex for the growth.
Excellent tone. Sans hormone.
Pressurized aerosol. Cans in the home.
Mob with a squad. Or or burn it alone.
Flip it on these cakes. Never grow old.

Never grow cold. Never go sold.
Stay up and stay fresh. And true to your soul.
Keep your eye in the sky. And mind those below.
Haste makes paste. Don't waste on the go.
Keep the hand steady. And mind every stroke.
Keep your name clean. Lest it be taken for a joke.
Only the dope. Ascend to the throne.
And only the brave. Redistribute the gold.
History speaks. Lo and behold.
When yours comes to mention. How is it told?

I stay juiced while you lay loose with your broad.
I pay dues while you pray truce to your god.
Mutual benefits only take you so far.
Axe about me, I'm in every scripture so far.
You live in a scandalous oasis.
Don't even understand the numbers in your paces.
Page by page, history retraces..
Even your mother found a sweet replacement.
Seek the graces of the meek you herd.
True minds stay pure. What you think you heard?
Can't patent knowledge you think you learned.
Can't travel faster than a geek, you nerd.
Six million ways to fly. Choose one.
If you thought about the Moon, you thought about the Sun.
If you thought about me, don't forget Vapor One.
Vindicated by the source that you think you run.
I'm ageless with no magnetic traces.
Dancing in shadows you haven't managed to place yet.
I cast light across the meadows like the arrival of the Ancients.
And maneuver through the plumbing beneath your basements.
Shakin' volcanic debris off the cloth.
Ain't no use talkin' to me off the clock.
All requests for peace are all for naught.
So long as you speak and don't walk the walk.

Check. Check. Check the style I get.
Get on where I fit in like new scripts for loose lips.
The Goose gets a hangover from this cool kid.

And this dude lets the shoes kick for amusement.
Sure, abuse is not the most effective way to get your two in.
But if you is a student and fluent in the movement.
Then you get the lucid clues in the blueprint.
The wise, to the blind, look foolish and stupid.
A cute dress on. A few less more. A duress storm.
A new face on. Keep calm and press on.
Thunder Chest of Wonderment. Heavy lid to cover it.
Many want to know what treasures could possibly be under it.
Who knows? Certainly not your corrupted righteous government.
Poles suggests a sudden shift of obligates and covenants.
Blast-for-me's and other mess... Bloody rubbish pestilence.
Rotten thoughts and tooth decay to attain one's opulence.
Documents restored and cached into my repertoire.
Rock you with some more and patch it to my central box.
Toasted bagel with feathered lox, tomatoes sliced, and cheddar-topped.
Open face like golden plates, "Pass the pepper, not the salt."
Apple cider, cinnamon. Awe yeah, that's the stuff.
Belly full. Time's up.

I get my inspiration from the lord.
Not the Lord, but the land devil playin' God.
Ask me why I'm grippin' my fist so hard.
I carry pails full of tears from the wells of the poor.
Express delivery, three knocks at the door.
Knuckles bruised to the detriment of all.
Scent o' mints lend devils chose to ignore.
Your fresh bag of tricks grown stale from the mold.

I didn't ask for the gift until it was withheld.
Asked for directions, only given a "fare well."
Built my own vessel, hit the beach, and set sail.
Blessed by the source with a code to scare Hell.
Embedded my spirit into every loose spell.
Mind your thoughts and what they do tell.
Mind your steps and where they do trail.
Mind your hands and what they do build.

Three eyes. Three ears. Three hands.
See lies. Hear fears. Ink maps.
Check the territorial pissings...

Upon the forms you're sifting....
You're not alone, you with me?
I ink blots with calculated sweet spots.
I think thoughts with calculated slinged shots.
I run that fee fie foe where gentry try grow.
Your weak minds slow, but ye might know.

I speak truth. Ain't afraid breath. You-
Make fictitious weak loot. I see through-Magnetic interference you think you sneak. Who-
The love you think's fooled by your licensed weed fool!

We do more than you think, 'shoe.
Catch the proof in a liquored speech true.
Scratch that shigga fragga without missin' a beat, too!
Bringin' gravity to that cavity like a sugar-sweet tooth.

Look at me, dude. Cross-walk. Cross-talk.
Everything they taught in that cellar ain't made you a boss rock.
Static as you ever been. Check the weather, man.
Tides have changed and you still locked in a tethered skin.

Six letter heroine. Ask me where's the arrow, then?
Check my quiver, boy. Ask me if I'm quiverin'.
Drop ship and pop locks. Rock shit while you hop scotch.
Lick my teeth wet with hot venom and salt rock.

Continue where I left off. No cause for panic.
As I lift my arms and hands in a different language.
What's strange is how my closest became strangers.
How I approach it is with absolute patience.
New pages in my book and I plan to keep it epic.
Spittin' in your face, but I mean no disrespect, bitch.
Loose wire waitin' for reconnection.
I choose higher places for me to make it.
Extend myself as a many headed-hound.
Ready to feast on the many heads of hydras all around.
It ain't a shakedown. It's the result of a collective stomach-growl.
A collective under-ground. A collective thunder-cloud.

Continue where I left off. No cause for panic.
As I lift my arms and hands in a different language.
What's strange is how my closest became strangers.
How I approach it is with absolute patience.
New pages in my book and I plan to keep it epic.
Spittin' in your face, but I mean no disrespect, bitch.
Loose wire waitin' for reconnection.
I choose higher places for me to make it.
Extend myself as a many headed-hound.
Ready to feast on the many heads of hydras all around.
It ain't a shakedown. It's the result of a collective stomach-growl.
A collective under-ground. A collective thunder-cloud.

Messin' with my style. Yo, I ain't the best.
Though I may come across as some arrogant shit.
It's all satire like an Onion split.
Like an exoperculture script.
Like catch me in a drift on a pirate ship.
Latherin' ropes with calists that stay legit.
Documented wetbacks to pay the rent.
Rock you with that payback when I'm laid to rest.
And I ain't jaded yet, though otherwise I may convince.
I was BORN in the gutter. Think I ain't used to it, bitch?
Flip the script, like I flipped a snitch.
Once you take an Oath; better mind that lip.
I ain't afraid of the dark, cause I ain't afraid of friends.
And I don't cast light, I merely let it in.
Cast a reflection maybe at best.
And if you think I'm alone, best think again.
Trying desperately to decypher my spit.
But the ultimate message ain't meant to comprehend.
It's meant only to provide direction.
Keep up with the pace and mind those steps.
Don't trip over nothin'...

my choice lingo rip flesh from bone.

like snappin' a twisted wet towel from the elbow.
cries of agony as the event unfolds.
like when pages were burned by bishop diego.
well, at least we still got four.
one only knows where they still keep more.
it ain't no where near that God forsaken shore.
but one might find hints in a used book store.
linda schele might also have hinted before too much to sketch on that beauteous door.
i'd love to walk you through it but you might not be as fluent as a delinquent from the gutter
i think you already knew that.
waitin' for a new rap from a new jack but i'm a king and not an impotent transplant act like you don't know your own damn jam i can spit too and cover your eyes in flu phlegm compressed to new gems to take life and grow limbs crawl amongst you as fashionable loose hems hired for that new sec[tor] and gentrify your bruised kids one by one. you and you. and who's next?
doin' the exact same things that you did.
who you gonna call the criminal then?
subliminal mess, i'm beyond that shit.
take my name into the alley and ask them, "who's this?"
vapor, sweater, terser, and houzi so many names still fall from loose lips known for kickin' throttle and sinkin' cruise ships check the seafloor for the time i threw fits kick the orders and watch them executed don't be a victim of co-incidents i don't wanna be the one to say i told you so but seriously. act like you don't know.

got me where you had me, but you grasp with your hands.
my mind stays in dance, molest your snakes in the grass.
check the feathered cape elastic upon my back.
caress the scales of a dragon before it's slain for a snack.
shake a leg, its sinews and ligaments and fat.
molten ossein slowly drained into my glass.
lick my teeth wet violently with a splash.

chase it with some fireworks and more loose gas.
translate that and read it and don't forget the quote:
"i got it where i need it and i don't need the goat."
and i don't mean to boast and i don't mean to gloat.
but if you're asking me to show, then where you trying to go?
your artificial intellect already in the know.
my name is embedded in every line of code.
the hydras keep sniffing, burning tracks into her nose.
until her wall tissues evaporate and little heart explodes.
true artists know what the true arts are for.
and there are no truths in the arts of war.
but you'll always see the glitter where true stars are born.
like whispers in the alley where new shadows form.
like winters in the valley bearing crops of corn.
like lintels for the family when there are no more.
like manifestations of fantasies from the tykes of yore.
like life that is continuously infused with lore.

Yeah, we gon' do this. Askin' me who 'we?'
Trace roots, if you wanna, but eyes on me.
Our minds don't speak everything we think.
Insulated by the newest neutrinite mindsinks.
True minds stay connected through Divine True Speech.
You'll find that the new meek are not so weak.
Like deep roots break through concrete.
Surprise! The jury came for you, not me.

From hand-me-downs in a land of scoundrels.
Hounds bred from polluted flour mills.
Heart-shaped callus from the flower fields.
Macaroni cheddar with industrial zeal.

So i'm back here chilin', stray track killin'.
J-cats catch that lay back dental fill-in.
Like spraycans on a late snack clicka clacka.
Rip a wrappa like winter jackets in nuclear reactors.
Street actors keep your distance. You chasin' riches.
I'm makin' calculated moves to make a difference.
Hashtagged teens. I can't breathe!

And I ain't screamin', "Fuck the Law." So they lash at me.
Meanwhile, they jazz that beef.
Discrediting every movement that makes progress by smashing things.
Yeah. I backtrack links.
You fake, piggy-back, claim the fame, capitalize on the same shit you despise. Take a good look in my eyes.
You ain't nothin' but jive, counterfeit keep-it-live, 100 percent nonsense. Phased out tryin' to spark shit.
I'm bein' honest. You ain't buildin'? So whatcha doin'?
Complainin' about changes around you, but how was it when you flew in?
You gutter rocks spinnin' sputter talk.
Bangin' like butter blocks wrapped in cotton socks.
On an open fire with chestnuts and such.
I keep my nose clean while yours runnin' rubber snot.
Wait until the bubble pop. Even they kill another cop.
That don't make the trouble stop.
Had a crisis in '08. Wait until another drop.
Oh. Right. Obama helped with what?
Fake. Fake. Fake. Act like you know!
Quit spinnin' your fairy winter flows like you on some hydro.
Stay Fresh bananas, but you stale like moldy three week-old tuna fish salad.
Quick to destroy. You lack patience to build.
Ain't even got a plan for after the blood's spilled.
Get real.

i'm the candy cane man kickin' rocks in sugar valley.
whispers all around me. rotten teeth in the alley.
shadows stay surround me for a piece of that cavity.
kick that happy jolly like easter activities.
creeps, jerks, and rival priests.
knees flirt with vile feet.
lust, lorn, and trialed teens.
the flash is on. smile please.
clean coins from travelers' fees.
shadow-light economies.
tourists stay tryin' me.
we can still be brothers, G.

Stir yourself. Keep yourself fresh.

Keep your flavor alive and vibrant.
Stir yourself. It's never too late.
It only gets harder as you settle.
Stir yourself. Even if you're stiff.
There's some elasticity in you if you can still breathe.

no one right like me they try to rite like me but can't even write like me let alone shed that light like me they try to fight like me but can't grip that fist tight like me can't mix that black and that white like me they wanna soar heights like me but can't maintain their sites like me blinded by True sights like me hope they kick it and collect they minds like me lest they collapse from great might's like me they plated with gold and don't price like me i don't shake and don't fold, they ain't trifed like me they ain't used to the types like me ain't seen no one change up lives like me axe about me. who shake them dice like me?
who spin them winter fairy tales that end nice like me?
who got nothin' to hide from they wife like me?
who spit that serial Truth with no Lies like me?
who got that dragon-skinned apron that can't be tried like me?
who was born the very night they died like me?
who run they own math with no cosines like me?
who run they own Math with no cosigns like me?
who run through dark paths with no fright like me?
who can kick it to the gas and stop at dimes like me?
even in prose they can't keep in line like me divided by infinity, they still ain't fine like me.
in the end, they all love me even if they don't quite like me.

if i flatter, don't let it go to your head.
i'm just supportin' you. i ain't jockin' you, kid.
i ain't with which to be compared, y'heard?

au contraire, you think in nouns; i in verbs.
you ain't seen what i seen.
so how you propose to know what i mean, billy jean?
my style may confuse your textbook wisdom. think?
it's not jesus syndrome, it's legitimate-speak.
if i explained at length, your eyes might flutter.
you'd know i'm closer to Truth and thus call me a True brother.
never clandestine, my ops stay overt.
ain't got shit to hide, not even my hand in her skirt.
i work for work's sake; not for pete's sake nor lean steak.
no second-guesses in the moves i make.
mistakes are mistakes. i'm on the move to be Great.
am i far from you now? you may or may not be late.

Oh, man with wrinkled eyes.
I met you by the cave.
We stared each other as I approached.
You raised my attention.

I was young and bold, but cold and alone.
I wandered here and there.
You waited by the cave.
Your patience unweathered.

"Lights on or lights off,
It's all the same.
Enter if you wish,
But I dare you not."

I entered at my own will.
I wandered deeper and deeper.
Lost my balance and direction.
But I continued on.

Your voice echoed all along the way.
I began to feel every vibrant chord.
But suddenly you paused in speaking.
And I grew very, very scared.

My heart pumped viciously blood to every pore.
I thought of every resource that I hadn't kept in storage.

Then you spoke and I sobbed.
My lips trembled as my nose leaked.

"I am a truly powerless man.
I have walked and talked and built and destroyed.
At last here I am emerged deep in a cave.
Freed into shackles."

Then, with my new chains, I developed balance,
With your voice soothing my soul.
I could feel everything as extensions of my chains.
And now, I dance with you everywhere.

I needn't see all.
I needn't hear all.
I needn't build all.
I am all. All bless all.

Spit it thick cause now I'm deep in it ain't no denyin' the things that I'm keep buildin' and now it's time to bill it. Captains grab your capers. Send them to the sea floor when they spot the vapors at your bleak doors holding counterfeit papers only to seek more but nothing can be more horrendous than the falsehood of public pretenders holdin' weak sauce thinking they know the maze but not even the waters that reach shore. I bleach y'all fairy tale havin' asses not understandin' asses holdin' treasures in hand and still can't do the math without someone to crutch! You grasp only to clutch and beg for too much only to wonder why a delinquent would be touched at a mere request for such. It ain't a divine mind, but a mind true to the Divine.

whispers fill the air they tell me all their secrets so many ears that don't care and eyes that don't believe it do i misconstrue the few arts left am i so less true of a True Artist you try so hard to build right, you've no arms left sorry if the words i write make you alarmist no need to panic, i've no plans to clog caves i'm past the dance of convex and concave

i'm now the hydra embedded in all rock slaves

i stay true to the winds that paint and brush waves
i blunt false fangs with True chemical change True lemon juiced-page, True lights of True length

i know you're curious and rightly so so allow me to wet your appetite slightly more sure, you've been taught to listen and listen well but speaking is quite different and whispering different still i drink from a different well and work a different mill your obligations are contract, i work at will i don't need contact to seal a deal we're all connected after all. same roots, different fields.

rip it like im fluent in so many dimensions of fluid conceptions. maps with new directions.
to new erections of massive distinctions with features that leave true poets utterly speechless.
shadows that creep in with light travelers compete with stones. nomads with no homes.
no cash for no gold. old stash that's grown mold. silverbacks on silver tracks with yellow fever choke holds.
shake a feather with tethered skin of tender hands. underground weathersmiths seek deliverance.
peaks of mountaintops with battered ships. chatter lips chapped by a winter's grip. tongues licked by ice bricks.

I work in secret. Secret lairs. Can you peep it?
Only masters understand certain phrases as I'm speakin'.
I work in public. You won't ever catch me creepin'.
I am the light. I am the shadow. I am everything you're thinkin'.

Catch a whiff of my breaf they say that is stinkin'.
They say that Truth hurts, but I ain't hurtin' when I breathe it.
Some hear a name and hit the streets quickly to preach it.
Their voices tire and tongues dry. They can't believe it.

They sit and sink in deeper into the brittle cement.
They think they failed but only transition as they relent.
They'll get another chance as they reflect upon they treasons.
Or transition into demons wandering the night sleepless.

Expedient students would learn well to take a recess.
Excess of Faith can send one into dark unwanted regions.
Don't lose your heavenly masters to your worldly weakness.
Take a break and reflect upon the changes of the seasons.

I am the same in that I am not the same.
I am not the same in that I am the Same.
I am the collusion of calm. I am the wet of the flame.
I am the protrusion of all and the transition of planes.

I am the voice that echoes and dances in chains.
I am the free man that wears shackles in a cage.
I am the discovery of love within the discovery of shame.
I am the richest of all with no riches to claim.

Unaffiliated, I'm in debt to no gangs.
No spiritual advisors, I have no one to blame.
So many roads to trail, but they all lead to fame.
So I hang my head low and only whisper my name.

Alms for the bore, no space for loose change.
True hearts bear evermore treasures for all others to gain.
True seeds bear True fruit nurtured by True Faith.
Die Hard to the Root, steady Wax for the Wane.

They be like, "Permission to enter?"
I be like, "Stay at the gate. Lest you violate your oaths and conflagrate."
They be like, "Care to dance?"
I be like, "Y'aint ne'er seen the waves sway this way."
They be like, "Is this kid for real?"
I be like, "Nam for fake. Y'aint ready to tread across this lake."
They be like, "Ignorant and arrogant. Poor child."
I be like, "You're an avalanche, I'm just a snow flake."

1 - 2 - 3. Yo, they came to see.
Tic - Tac - Toe and the math plays clean.
Switch the bands and free Quincy.
Check the meta force and keep the peace.

Dancing on planes that some can't believe.
Some only dance to what the preachers sing.
Snakes cast treasures only to make them sink.
Take away their pleasure every time they blink.
Catch me in the fire cause I am the igniter.
Dopest linguist to ever be a street writer.
Was a dragon-slayer; now a dragon-rider.
Stay a street lover; not a street fighter.
Castin' pearls upon the meadow for swine to find 'em.
One bucket of Truth wash away a mountain of Lions.
Tryin' a True Brother and get blinded by the 'Linghtenin'.
Only the wick end would consider him frightenin'.

Catch the keys in a coffin. Rock jargon under coughs when the traffic gets to stoppin'.
Pause with no loss of movement. Catch a glimpse of the proof in this wicked display of amusement.
Grime in my teeth. Dirty rhymes to reveal the mind's eye. Sneak a peek but watch what you speak.
And watch what you eat. Controlled appetite brings enlightenment to peak. Check the yokes on the meek.
Keep the jokes in the street gutter. Flip the poles like teen mothers watching shows of each other.
Lick a wound with a hundred proof and a fitting tune. Charms over tea in the garden of Gity Joon.
Inside sentries in every room. Lecturers with wicker brooms sweeping the cellar twisted off a gypsy's brew.
Dust and bright flashes. Lost in the fog of dry magic. Now ask me who's axe is the baddest!

Skip the hook. Read a book.
Catch a mystery turn into a brand new outlook.
I'm such a good boy that they all think I'm a crook.
But I walk so damn straight, they wanna measure my foot.
They'd be better off to measure the print.
I'm leaving marks not stains when I'm cracking the flint.
Master my own magic stick with no second hand.
Minutes turn into hours. Surfing on clouds again.
Thought I was a King, but I'm merely a lowly 1.

Attaining my desires ain't the only fun.
Mutual pleasure melts omnipresent in our glowing palms.
One plus one equals a window. Forget what they think we on.
I penetrate fears like hands in violation.
Clams biting my fingers like a surprise invitation.
Morning dew drowning the meadows with a variety of faces.
I make that magic music, so why would I need to chase it?
Melodies like angels dancing in water.
Like wet dreams wide awake. Isn't it ironic?
Changing scales and still keep the harmonic.
Don't rock the boat if you still trying to stay on it.
Coast to coast and beach to beach.
Whatever one needs is within my reach.
Stack it higher and better than any first could teach.
I don't need the practice to manifest what I preach.
One's whispers become mine.
Harmonized minds create harmonized tides.
Catch that glitter turn into the undefined.
Believe that my skills are very much refined.
Rewind every interaction the next time you're relaxing.
I stay so true passersby pause to see the action.
Thought it was a sacrifice the way her breath gets erratic.
Ooops. Was that me? Depends on what was was and who's asking.

Me give you money for what? So you can look cute?
You're cute. Now cut the fluff.
I ain't interested in your gear. Just in your sense of touch.
Don't worry. I can show you how to enjoy yourself as much.
You see this? Just kidding. Nothing to see.
Just kidding. You want to see? Better pay me.
Hahaha. Just kidding again. We can still be friends.
Benefits or not. Do you even know who I am?
Do you know where I've been? Do you know who I've bent?
Do you know why my bosses are pressured to make me content?
Guess again. Nope. Once again. Maybe close.
If you guessed that I know the human anatomy, here's a rose...
Touch yourself with it. Feel its feathers.
Its wings. Its thorns. Its stem. I can already taste your leather.
You couldn't touch yourself the way I could.
I'm make you so ferocious, you'd develop your own wood.
Seriously. I've massaged the lady's wood with such finesse.

She thought I was God's gift to the Universe in the form of flesh.
I could teach you the gift. But you'd have to control that breath.
Can you? Can you curb your speech? Can you keep secrets?
I have so many. But I don't share in their weakness.
I can tease you more than you can tease me.
I know what I have and how to use it. So how can you please me?
Nevermind. You must be my student if you didn't know.
We can dance in the night or in the public show. Who's the first to go?
It doesn't matter to me. Did you forget who you saw?
So many scars on my back, I can't distinguish who's claws.
You speak so sly. I'm an Ace of Allegory.
I read your desires without you even knowing.
You give me a sign. I send it back to the sender.
You think I would beg you for a Lucky Chance dinner?
I could touch you before it arrived and leave you with the bill.
You'd call me the next day hoping for a refill.
What do you want. I am without wants.
If I want it, I get it. Problem solved. Problem gone.
I'm not in the mood to see things. I want to be things.
I want to manifest the deepest desires you hide while you're speaking.
I can kiss knees. I can kiss thighs and make rings.
I can kiss my way all over the map until jewels are revealing.
I can kiss places you never knew you had.
I can kiss my way across the laws of physics and bring you back.
So where are you at?

They spend more time describing things they don't understand.
I'm such a clean hand stirring their filthy contraband.
I don't sell wolf tickets. If I say it, I mean it.
They think they sully my name. I still don't need to clean it.
Go ask a mountain dweller, "Why did he say to ask you?"
I said it so many times before. I harmonize Truth.
I didn't ask for the game. I didn't beg on my knees.
I didn't sell my soul to anyone. Why start with new meat?
I'm not a player, but I know how to play.
Words are words. I have actions with louder things to say.
If I want it, I get it. But I control my appetite.
I ain't like them others tasting everything in sight.
I got what they need. What are they offering me?
They play with a fire and can't handle the steam.
Money? I have what money cannot buy.

I'm so damn straight no one would dare try.
They can't pleasure themselves. How they think to pleasure me?
I'm in it for hours. They beg to let them sleep.
Fine. Get off. Why they still speaking.
If they haven't an interesting thing to say, stop thinking.
I like painting, poetry, coffee, and music.
I like to read, write, and more. Why be so foolish?
They want me to chase. I want them to chase too.
Stalemate. Moving on. Let's discuss what's in today's news.
